

KNOWLEDGE BUILDING BLOCKS

Pupils should know:

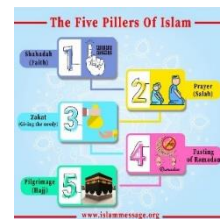

- ❖ Ways in which Christians, Jews, Muslims and non-religious people make a difference.
- ❖ Tzedakah is a Jewish charity that helps people or causes in need (Y2).

All religions want to make the world a better place. People need help and guidance to live the right way. They believe that God will help them through.

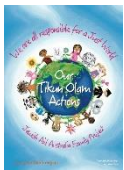

Jews and Christians use the Ten Commandments

Muslims use the Five Pillars.

People are sometimes inspired to do the right thing.

Tikkun Olam is a Jewish act of 'mending the world'. This might involve children planting flowers.

Zakah is a Muslim charity where they raise money to help make the world a better place.

Martin Luther King and Mother Teresa were some inspirational Christians who did amazing things to make the world better.

They showed great care for others.

The Golden Rule:
*Treat others the way
You want to be treated.*

People do not have to be religious to want to be good. Humanists do not believe in a god. They believe it is possible to live a good and fulfilling life without following a traditional religion. They often follow the Golden Rule. The Golden rule is important in many traditions; religious and non-religious.

charity	The voluntary giving of help, typically in the form of money, to those in need	humanist	Someone who has a rationalist outlook or system of thought attaching prime importance to human rather than divine or supernatural matters.
