

Topic: What kind of world did Jesus want?

Year: 4

Term: Spring 1

GOSPEL Where, on 'The Big Frieze' can you see the Gospel frame?

People liked listening to Jesus. He shared stories that showed people what kind of world he wanted.

Jesus chose 12 disciples, who he then made apostles. They learnt from him while he lived and continued to spread his teachings after he died.

Christians today try to follow Jesus and be 'fishers of people'.

The healing of the leper is a story where Jesus showed love to the most vulnerable and rejected.

The Good Samaritan is a story that tells us to love everyone even if that someone is not our friend.

Jesus wanted us to learn that the kind thing to do is to offer help to anyone who needs it.

Churches try to create a world, just as Jesus would have wanted. Churches want to show love for others.

Gospel	Good news, lessons taught by Jesus
disciple	Someone who learns from the teachings of Jesus
apostle	Someone who delivers the teachings of Jesus.
parable	A very short story told to teach a moral or religious lesson.
church	a building for public worship and especially Christian worship.
clergy	the group of religious officials, prepared and authorised to lead religious services
vicar	A minister in charge of a church.

Samaritan	A person who is generous in helping those in distress
leper	A disease that caused damage to the skin.
vulnerable	Someone who is weak and without protection.
rejected	Someone or something that is not accepted.
justice	The upholding of what is fair, right and just.
inequality	The condition of not being equal.